PRESS RELEASE

NECMİ ZEKÂ

THREE MASKED TALES

4 – 24th OCTOBER 2010

Vernissage: 4th October, Monday 18:00

Dirimart is happy to announce Necmi Zekâ's most recent solo exhibition "Three Masked Tales".

The exhibition consists of three series of works dating 2010. Similar to his previous exhibitions, Necmi Zekâ takes his inspiration from the interaction between visual and verbal entities. Works titled "Sir?", "Stars & Stars", "Whole vs. Parts" are produced with masking tapes on cardboard and based on short narratives.

The works try to problematize established techniques of narration and visualization through an ingenious two-tier composition with a somewhat ironic emphasis. The exhibition focuses on the issue of "the denoting and concealing effects of language" in general. It also points out the illusions caused by the repetitive use of communication units.

Concurrently, a new book of long poems and short texts by Necmi Zekâ, "Scrawly Functioning", was published by Komsu Yayınları as a part of the "Forbidden Fruit" series. The exhibition "Three Masked Tales" can be viewed in Dirimart between the dates 4 – 24th October.

NECMİ ZEKÂ: THREE MASKED TALES 4 – 24th OCTOBER 2010.

Monday-Saturday 10:00 – 19:00.
